Handwritten notes on a piece of paper, including the word "KPH" and some illegible scribbles.

A photograph of a stack of old, yellowed, and stained papers, likely historical documents, resting on a wooden surface. The papers are heavily discolored with large, irregular brown and tan stains, particularly along the right edge and bottom. The edges of the papers are frayed and uneven. The stack is placed on a dark brown wooden surface with a visible grain.
